

ARTS & HUMANITIES

Die-cut Window

SPORTDiscus

The SPORTDiscus completes your research in the arts, humanities and social sciences. Fitness and sport have played an important role in the development of culture throughout history. From ancient Greece and Zeus to the study of modern day music and choreography in sport, the relationship between the arts, humanities and sport is undeniable. The SPORTDiscus is the only database to bring these various disciplines together in one comprehensive, easy-to-search database.

The SPORTDiscus highlights over 600,000 references from thousands of international periodicals, books, e-journals, conference proceedings, theses, dissertations, websites, etc.

Subscribers enjoy the convenience of searching SPORTDiscus using the multilingual subject headings. Incorporated into the SPORTDiscus are documents printed in over 50 different languages as well as highly recognized databases such as the Olympic Museum Catalogue (Switzerland), Atlantes (Spain) and Heracles (France). Our international indexing partners contribute important regional content to the SPORTDiscus. This creates a more diverse, multi-cultural and comprehensive collection of references.

SIRCThesaurus

The SIRCThesaurus simplifies searching regardless of the platform. The internationally recognized thesaurus with its controlled vocabulary and over 27,000 descriptors, including personal names, is constantly updated. Accurate searches offered by the thesaurus provide faster results.

Qualified Content

The SPORTDiscus provides an international collection of practical and theoretical references. Each reference is pre-qualified by our indexing team and given a research level: Basic, Intermediate or Advanced, in order to provide more accurate research results. Electronic links to the fulltext, author and/or publisher are included when available.
